

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Robert Moore Second World War
Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

1-27-1945

1945-01-27, Robert to Helen

Robert E. Moore

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/rmoore_correspondence

Recommended Citation

Moore, Robert E., "1945-01-27, Robert to Helen" (1945). Robert Moore Second World War Correspondence Collection. 38.

https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/rmoore_correspondence/38

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Robert Moore Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1945-01-27, Robert to Helen

Summary

This collection contains correspondence from 2ndLt. Robert E. Moore, USA to his wife, Helen Mendenhall Moore in Seminole, OK, during the Second World War.

Keywords

1945-01-27

Identifier

2017-718-w-r-_Moore_WWII_1945-01-27

Lt Bob Moore 01175249

Bty "C" 689th F.A. Bn

APO #403 90 P.M.

New York, N.Y.

VIA AIR MAIL

Mrs Bob Moore

Seminole

R#2

Okla

R.E. Moore

40 CW Mendenhall

Jan 27, 1948
U.S. 3rd army.

My Darling Wife,

Well here I am again.
we had a busy night and day but not too bad. In fact if one could forget the dangers that are involved, we are having lots of fun, but under the Circumstances I will call it excitement.

How are you today Honey?
I know you are just as lonely as ever and I might say that I love you more than ever, I think I will, I love you dear.

If you could hear all of the noise and distracting sounds that are going on you would probably wonder how on earth I can write. Its a mystery to me.

I have to go out to the O.P. tomorrow and see if I can't hunt off a few Krauts. Don't worry, I'll take care of myself. I Love you too much to take any unnecessary chances. The way the Russians are going I may see some of their Advance Patrols. Ha Ha, don't worry I would. I think that is going to be next to the happiest days of my life. Of course the happiest being when I hold you closely in my arms again. Darling I am living and hoping for that day to come soon.

How are all the folks Honey?
You know it has sure been a long time since I have heard from anyone. The last letter I had was from you and that was the 13th of December.

I am certainly hoping that you are getting my letters. I have at least the knowledge that you are home and are probably O.K. But if you haven't received any of my mail you might just by chance be standing as to my whereabouts. I am assuming that you are getting my letters though.

Darling I can think of very little to say tonight - so guess I will close. Will try to write again tomorrow. When you send me a box put some real thin air mail stationery in it, because that's all I am going to write. I Love you Dear, Remember that always. God bless you.

Your Hubby
Bob